25. Officers may hold more than one office, subject to the following restrictions:
- (a) Technical offices are defined to be Technical Director, Lighting Director, Sound Director, Set and Props Director, Costume, Hair and Make-up Director, and Systems Administrator.
 - (b) No officer holding one or more technical offices may hold a non-technical office.
 - (c) No officer may hold more than one of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Honorary Secretary.
 - (d) The Ordinary Committee Member must not hold any other offices within the Society.
26. The term of office for all positions runs from the 1st of August to the 31st of July. CSP POLICY, SF(1)(1.4)
27. A position of office may be vacated by an officer:
- (a) Resigning
 - (b) Reaching the end of their term of office
 - (c) Failing to hold full membership of the Society
 - (d) Becoming deceased
28. Any officer ceasing to qualify for Full Membership of the Society must resign their position.
29. Should an office fall empty, a by-election shall be held at a General Meeting called by the President, which shall be subject to the same regulations as the elections held at the Annual General Meeting. BYE-LAWS G
CSP POLICY, SF(3)(3.7)

Meetings of the Committee

30. Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the President, and shall be held at least monthly during College term time.
31. A meeting must be called by the President upon the request of any three members of the Committee.
32. The President or their delegated authority shall chair meetings of the Committee.
33. At least five College days' written notice of planned meetings of the Committee shall be provided by the Secretary to members of the Committee.
34. Committee meetings shall be held fortnightly at a date and time pre-determined by said Committee prior to each term. Reasons for deviation from the agreed upon date must be noted in the minutes. In the event a consensus on the appropriate day to hold meetings cannot be reached amongst the Committee the default shall be Tuesday, in deference to tradition since time immemorial.
35. Unplanned meetings may be held with shorter notice if there is a good reason to do so.
36. Quorum of the Committee shall be 50%+1 of the officers of the Committee. BYE-LAW C(7)
37. Any Member of the Society may observe Committee meetings as a Guest of the Committee.
38. Only voting officers of the Committee may vote at Committee meetings.
39. A person who is not a Member of the Society may be invited by the Committee to attend a Committee meeting as a Guest of the Committee.
40. Guests of the Committee must ask permission from the Chair of the meeting to speak (ordinarily the President).
41. The Secretary or their delegated authority shall circulate agenda for meetings of the Committee no less than one College day in advance of the meeting.
42. The first agendum of any Committee meeting must be to approve the minutes of any prior meetings as a true and accurate record of the meeting to which they refer, and to note any corrections as upheld by vote if necessary, provided at least five College days has passed since the said minutes' circulation to the Committee.
43. The Secretary must circulate to the Committee a draft of the meeting's minutes within four college days of the meeting.

44. A member may submit to the Secretary a request to view the draft non-reserved minutes. The Secretary must provide to such a member the draft minutes as soon as reasonably possible, so long as:
 - (a) Two College days have passed since the circulation of the draft minutes to the Committee and Guests,
 - (b) Before the minutes are provided to the member, any comments made on the draft by attendees to the meeting are appended
 - (c) The President has the right to veto the release of any section of the draft minutes until the following committee meeting, for reasons that must be provided to the member
 - (d) It is made clear that released minutes are unpublished and unapproved
45. The Secretary must publish minutes of a meeting to the general public within three College days of the minutes' approval as a true and accurate record of the meeting to which they refer by the Committee.
46. An archive of all unreserved meeting minutes should be made publicly available by the Secretary.
47. In extremis, a member of the Committee may request that minutes be denoted as reserved, either in part or in full, and reasons for the reservation must be included in either the unreserved minutes, the reserved minutes, or both. This request may be made at any time prior to the publication of the minutes to the general public.
48. In the event that certain minutes are reserved by the Committee, an indication that minutes were reserved must be present in the unreserved minutes.
49. Reserved minutes may be distributed only to members of the Committee, and, upon request, to the President of the Union, a Deputy President of the Union, or the Chair of the Society's Management Group.
50. Reserved minutes may be unreserved at the Committee's discretion.
51. Whilst reserved minutes are being taken, Guests of the Committee may be asked to leave by the meeting's Chair.
52. Committee members must strive to attend all Meetings of the Committee, and are obliged to submit apologies to the Secretary if they are unable to do so for whatever reason.

Subcommittees

53. The Committee may create further committees, without derogating from its responsibility, as its members see fit. Such committees shall be sub-committees of the Committee and shall be chaired and constituted as the Committee sees fit.
54. Any member of the Committee shall be entitled to sit on any sub-committee so created, and may do so after informing the Committee as such.
55. Such sub-committees shall not have decision making powers binding on the Society, but may make recommendations to the Committee.
56. All members of sub-committees need only to be Members of the Union, not of the Society.
